FRANKFORT.

Knights of Columbus Are Again on Lively Move.

On Easter Monday evening Frankfort Council, K. of C., celebrated with an open session, to which the Catholic men of the city were invited, that proved highly enjoyable to the large number present. Interesting impromptu talks were made by Lecturer H. P. Lutkemeler, Grand Knight J. J. King, Rev.
Father Flynn and others. Immediately after the social session a buffet luncheon was served by the Entertainment Committee. Thursday night Frankfort Council resumed its weekly series of eucha-rastic parties with a good attendance. On Monday, April 7, the third of the series of historical sketches will be given. These historical papers are creating widespread interest among the members and increase the attendance at meetings.
Several applications for membership have been filed and it is confidently expected to have a class of thirty-five or forty for initiation by the first of May. The Executive Committee that will have charge of the Fourth of July outing are at work and promise to make this annual event the greatest yet given.

WILL SERVE REFRESHMENTS.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St.
John's church will entertain with a euchar and lotto next Wednesday afternoon and evening at Trinity Council Hall, Baxter and Morton avenues. The afternoon games to begin at 2:30 and the evening games at 8 o'clock. Coffee and sandwiches will be served and entertainment will be provided for those not desiring to participate in the games.

PLANS FOR HOME.

The Knights of Columbus of Frankfort are considering several sites for the erection of a home of their own, and it is probable that a decision will be reached at an early date. Plans for the building, which have been submitted to the committee, indicate that it will be one of the finest K. of C. Homes in Kentucky.

POSTPONED.

The euchar and lotto party that was to have been given at St.
Michael's Hall last Tuesday afternoon and evening was postponed because of the bad weather. It will take place next Monday, when a number of pretty awards will be added. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. Michael's church.

FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

Louisville Camp of the United Spanish War Veterans is preparing for the observance of Decoration day, and therefore requests those who had relatives in the army from April 26, 1898, to February 2, 1902, and who are buried in any of the local cemeteries, who died in the service or since, to mail their name and address to Adjutant M. L.
Wachtel, 1245 South Floyd street.
It is important that the cemetery in which the deceased lies buried be stated, as Louisville Camp wants to visit and decorate the grave of each comrade.

HOSPITAL SALE ORDERED.

Judge Buskirk, of Paoli, Ind., presiding in the Clark Circuit Court at Jeffersonville, sustained the motion ordering the close and sale of the Mercy Hospital and its property in that city. Recently a number of suits were brought against the institution, which resulted in the above action. The indebtedness is said to be about $30,000. Mother about two years ago.

BISHOP DUFFY.

The date for the consecration of Bishop-elect Duffy, of Kearney, Neb., has been fixed for Wednesday, April 16. The consecration ceremonies will take place at the Cathedral in Cheyenne. Archbishop Keane, of Dubuque, will be the consecrating prelate, with Bishop Sean-nell, of Omaha, and Bishop McGovern, of Cheyenne, co-consecrators.

PAGEANT

Will Show Brilliant Periods in Ireland's History.

Plans have been completed for the Irish historical pageant to be produced by the American Committee of the Gaelic League of Ireland on the evenings of April 24 and 25 in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory, New York City. Justice Victor J.
Dowling, Treasurer of the committee, reports that half the sum needed to defray the expenses of the production already has been guaranteed. The pageant will be divided into three episodes, representing brilliant periods in Ireland's history, from the second century, when it was still pagan, until the sixth century, which marked the advent of St.
Columbille. The music, selected in part from the old Irish airs and supplemented with original lyrics, is being orchestrated by Alfred G.
Roby and Victor Herbert. Especial care is being taken to reproduce faithfully the costumes of the period.
There will be groups of clerics and old-time bards, as well as Irish wolf hounds, long believed to be extinct, introduced in the tableaux. The proceeds from the pageant are to be deposited with Justice Martin J.
Keogh, to be used by the Gaelic League of Ireland in its propaganda of restoring the ancient language of Ireland. President Wilson is one of the active supporters of the American Committee.

FOR WOMAN'S EYE.

Sashes are again fashionable.

The dolman type of wrap still remains good style for afternoon and evening.

Combining fabrics is the order now and most robes will be made of two materials.

Streamer ends come into style on hats nearly every spring, but never seem to stay in.

The long sleeve and separate vest continue popular and have developed many new styles.

Cashmere will have much success this season, for it is a dressy material and drapes marvelously.

With the fashion of all kinds of feather ornaments on hats old feathers need never be thrown away.

While the long kimono shaped evening wraps are still very correct, those that include a little drapery are better style.

As an outcome of the popularity of the slanting coat fronts the separate vest, made of a wide range of materials, has manifested itself.

Not only do sashes adorn all latest imported dresses, but they are seen belting coats or falling in long ends from a hat bandeau that is wreathed with part of the sash.

FATHER HEALY.

The famous Father Healy, traveling on an English railway, once found himself opposite a sour looking individual, who after making some remark on the weather, proclaimed himself an atheist. The priest merely nodded his head, and then seemed absorbed in his book.

The atheist, however, was bent on having an argument, and he proceeded to set forth his opinions, using expressions bordering on coarseness. Finally Father Healy looked up. "You, sir, as an atheist, believe in nothing," said he quietly.

"I only believe what I can understand," replied the other.
"It comes to the same thing," said the priest blandly, and after that he had peace. Till the end of the journey the professed atheist did not venture another remark.
